March @ the Library
And a sneak peak at April too!

Author Book Talk & Signing: Christie Green

Saturday March 8th, 2pm, Conference Room

Tracking and tracing, moving in darkness, watching, smelling, listening, and following the animals, Green sheds the burdens of her domestic self and witnesses the animals defying reason as they walk her into their world, ambling her along, straddling night and day, waking and sleeping.

Christie Green is a mother, writer, hunter and landscape architect. Raised in Alaska and on her grandfather's farm in west Texas, and now as a resident of Santa Fe, New Mexico, Ms. Green's livelihood and lifestyle continue to be informed by place.

Sneak Peaks - Author Events in for April

Jemez Springs Public Library Author Book Talk & Signing: Tom Swetnam

Saturday April 5th, 2 PM, Library Conference Room

The Jemez Mountains are a quintessential New Mexico landscape. For centuries, Pueblo, Spanish, and Anglo cultures have mixed and melded here. Many ancient villages are scattered across the mesas and in the canyons below the Valles Caldera, the crater of a giant, slumbering volcano. The rocks and trees of this landscape tell tales of eruptions, lava flows, droughts, floods, forest fires, and hot springs damming a river. Stories abound of battles for land and water between conquistadores, pueblos, and priests, and of farming and sheep herding disrupted by raiders and rustlers. In the modern era, forest rangers, scientists, and hippies have played an important role in shaping the area.

Thomas W. Swetnam is a Regents' Professor emeritus at the University of Arizona, where he studied land-use history and forest and fire ecology. He lives in Jemez Springs, New Mexico.

The Last Hanging of Angel Martinez: A Reading, Discussion, & Signing

Saturday April 12th, 2 PM
Library Conference Room

In Taos County, New Mexico, probation officer Nina Montgomery thinks she knows all about Ángel Martinez, a "frequent flyer" in the judicial system for increasingly sadistic treatment of his ex-partner, Liza Monaghan. When Liza is found dead on her kitchen floor, everyone suspects Ángel—Nina most of all.

Kate Niles, author of The Basket Maker and The Book of John, returns with a sophisticated murder mystery that is part homage to her beloved southwest, and part exploration of humanity as she has found it as a therapist (day job!) and former Probation Officer working in Durango, CO. Come for an afternoon of smart fiction and snappy discussion!

Help us GROW our seed library!

The Jemez Springs Public Library is collecting donations of garden and ornamental flower seeds to start a seed library to serve the community.

Bring any gardening seeds you want to donate to our temporary location inside the Jemez Springs Community Presbyterian Church to share with others.

Donation forms and envelopes will be available at the library.

Tips for donating seeds:

- No mixed vegetable or fruit seeds.
- Mixed wildflower seeds are ok
- Provide as much information about the seeds as possible (type of plant, growing suggestions, etc.)
- Dry seeds only
- No bulbs or tubers at this time
- No large commercial crops or GMO seeds at this time

Questions about the seed library? Contact us at jsseedlibrary.org
