

Local News & Communications Venues:

Newspapers:

-) After the Thunder, biweekly, billyehret@afterthethunder.com, 917-450-2334
-) Jemez Valley Alley, monthly, thejva@outlook.com, 575-829-4467
-) Vacation Guide, annually billyehret@afterthethunder.com, 917-450-2334

Newsletters:

-) Walatowan, monthly, printed and online <https://www.jemezpuablo.org/newsletters/>
-) Jemez Springs Public Library e-newsletter, events & announcements, monthly, subscribe via patron account or at <https://jsplibrary.org/library-newsletter/>
-) Canon Community Center printed newsletter available onsite
-) School newsletters for students/families

Free WiFi:

-) Jemez Springs Public Library (accessible from outside building 24/7)
-) Jemez Pueblo (for homes of tribal members and at library)
-) Some local businesses provide wifi for customers

Websites:

-) Jemezsprings.net – Community Directory for Jemez Valley (Note – this new website has links to other local websites for entities throughout the corridor. Rather than recreate that list as a handout we're asking you to please look at the site and submit any missing pieces via the website contact – thank you!)

Social Media:

-) NextDoor.com Jemez Valley Neighborhood (includes corridor from San Ysidro – Seven Springs - Sierra Los Pinos)
-) Facebook sites (all require verification of local status):
 - o Jemez Chat
 - o I Drive Highway 4
 - o Jemez Online Yard Sale

Email lists & phone trees

-) Code red <https://www.sandovalcountynm.gov/codered/>
-) Jemez Sustainable Solutions – Farmer's Market news via email <https://farmersmarketsnm.org/marketfinder-markets/jemez-springs-community-farmers-market/>
-) Locally curated email lists by individuals, businesses, and service providers