

Community Information Center:

This bulletin board provides the public with a space to display non-library information.

The individual or organization posting material is solely responsible for its contents. The library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of individuals or organizations who choose to communicate on this bulletin board.

The library reserves the right to determine how long the materials will be made available on display, and whether they are of an appropriate size and number.